

Natural Colours Exhibition 2012 Miyagi-Tohoku

Oct 10th-14th 2012

Kenmin gallery, The Miyagi museum of art, Sendai city
<http://www.pref.miyagi.jp/bijyutu/mmoa/en/main/index.html>

Earth Network presents its 5th annual exhibition on natural colours in Miyagi prefecture this year. It is located in the Northeast of Japan and has valuable natures and traditional cultures. The region also revitalizes from the natural disaster since last year. Earth Network calls for artists and practitioners who subscribe ecological and sustainable activity on natural dye and pigment both within Japan and abroad. Lectures and workshops will be accompanied.

Entrance requirements for the exhibition

Registration starts from 20th June and finishes on 20th July.

Exhibition fee for individual artist –200USD(Paypal will be arranged) it includes return postage (Express Mail Service), a poster and a booklet of artworks, reports on CD.

The maximum size of postage - maximum lengths 1.5m, Length + Circumference is less than 3m. Maximum weight- 5kg.(South America and Africa=3kg, Japan=20kg)

The maximum size of artwork – 3.9m x 4.3m

Title, Artists, Country, Description of work, Material information (Natural fibre, dyes or pigments include names of plant or animal species), Comments or message from the author (approximately 50words)

Maximum number of artists - 30

Gallery space - 495.9 square metres

Images and videos of exhibition, lectures and workshop will be delivered.

Facebook official page is in preparation.

The image of artwork will be shown on the poster if it is sent by the end of June. Later applicant's image will be shown on our website in July-August.